

► Successful audit

At the beginning of October, we had an in-depth industrial audit by the company THALES ALENIA. The audit was held mainly because of the acquired I-HAB project, to which we will supply pressure sensors for a space station on the moon (Lunar Gateway), specifically absolute and a differential pressure sensor to the life support system.

